

Final Grades

Sent to all undergraduate students on 12/7/11 via Campus Announcement

To all undergraduate students:

Final grades are due by faculty on Monday, December 19, and hopefully will be posted by Tuesday morning. Please note there are many processes that have to be run after the grades are posted. Some of these processes include running Academic Standing and Academic Honors.

One of the last processes I run is Course Repeats. If you were repeating a course, you will not see this right away but I am hopeful to have all of these processes complete by the end of Tuesday or Wednesday morning.

So when viewing your grades and you see something isn't there, it probably is because the processes are not completed yet. Just keep checking your PeopleSoft account and hopefully by the end of Wednesday, you will see everything.

Good luck with your finals and have a great break!

Karen J. Burkum, Registrar
Clarkson University
Student Administrative Services